

2022 Bill Sauble Scholarship Application Form

Colfax County Farm & Livestock Bureau

The Colfax County Farm & Livestock Bureau will be awarding two (2) $500.00 scholarships to Colfax County students in May, one to a high school senior and one to a continuing education college student.

Scholarship Rules & Requirements:

1. The applicant must be a resident of Colfax County. The applicant or their families do not have to be members of the Colfax County Farm & Livestock Bureau to apply, but preference will be given to applicants with family members that belong to the CCF&LB.
2. The applicant must be a high school senior, home schooled senior or college freshman, sophomore or junior in good academic standing.
3. The scholarships shall be awarded only once a year.
4. The scholarships shall be applied to any college, university, trade or vocational school.
5. The scholarships will be payable either directly to the college/university or individual at the discretion of the Colfax County Farm & Livestock Bureau for expenses such as tuition, books, fees, or room & board.
6. Applicants may apply more than once, but are eligible to receive the scholarship only twice, i.e., one may receive the scholarship as a high school senior and then once more as a college student. Preference will not be given to previous winners.
7. All applications will be numbered, and names withheld until after a recipient has been selected by the scholarship committee.
8. All application forms must be typed. Supplements (descriptions of school & community activities and essays) should be typed. Illegible applications will not be accepted.
